ANTIQUE, FLEA AND FARMERS' MARKETS

Looking for that special collector's item - old china, furniture, books? Enjoy browsing for bargains? Want to know where to get the freshest of farm produce? This guide helps you find out where and when.

Our information is restricted to regularly scheduled antique, flea & farmers' markets in Ontario. You can find details of annual shows and special markets in our seasonal events calendars. Individual antique and specialty stores in Ontario are too numerous for us to list, but local chambers of commerce or tourist information centres will be happy to tell you what is available in their area.

For your convenience, the markets listed in this guide are arranged alphabetically by community according to Ontario's 12 regional travel association areas. The boundaries of these areas are indicated on the map on the opposite page.

Admission to the markets is free unless otherwise specified.

ALL INFORMATION IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE. TO AVOID DISAPPOINTMENT, WE URGE YOU TO CONTACT MARKETS BEFORE MAKING A SPECIAL TRIP.
